OUTDOOR ADVENTURES

Nestled in the rolling Sandhills, the Calamus State Recreation Area offers fun for everyone!

The 5,123 acre lake is surrounded by white sandy beaches with 4,958 acres of adjacent land covered in native flowers and plants.

Take in the beauty of the Calamus State Recreation Area with a hike on the nature trails, a picnic, or explore all the coves by jetski!

White sand beaches and the crisp blue waters of the Calamus won't disappoint!

The Calamus Reservoir and River are perfect for your outdoor adventures. The entire area offers opportunities for boating, canoeing, tubing, tanking, fishing, bird watching, camping, hiking, picnics and other recreational opportunities.

At Calamus Reservoir, campers can enjoy three modern campgrounds; Homestead Knolls, Nunda Shoal and Valley View Flats.

There are 132 RV pads with electrical hook-ups and 52 basic sites. Modern restrooms and showers are available.

Basic camping is available at Hannamon Bayou and Valley View Flat. Homestead Knolls and Nunda Shoal campgrounds both feature fish cleaning stations.

Attractions

Movies are enjoyed year round on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday's at the Rodeo Theatre.

Colorado artist Herb Mignery, originally from Bartlett, Nebraska, designed the "Cowboy Hangtime" Statue. More of his statues can be found in the nearby community of Bartlett, NE.

For more local history visit the Garfield County Historical Museum (call for appointment 308. 346. 4695) or check out over a hundred years' worth of Nebraska's Big Rodeo history at Northside Bar and Grill! Don't forget to visit the historic archway of Nebraska's Big Rodeo at the fairgrounds.

Fort Hartsuff was built in 1874 to protect settlers during the Plains Indian Wars.

The park is near present day Elyria, between Ord and Burwell - east of Highway 11.

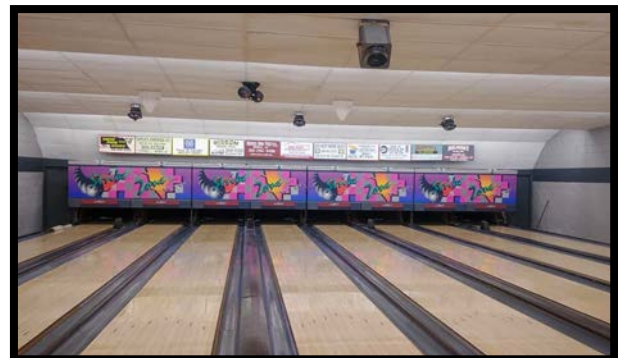

For more information on Fort Hartsuff State Historical Park go to www.outdoornebraska.gov/forthartsuff or call 308. 346. 4715.

The Calamus Golf Course offers 9-holes and a club house with beverages and snacks.

Longhorn Lanes is an eight lane bowling alley that offers leagues, open bowling, food and drinks. Open bowling is available all day Saturday, with evening leagues Monday through Friday. For more information call 308.346.4483.

Enjoy a picnic, nature and the view of the river at the city park! Camper hookups and basic campsites available as well.

The Burwell Swimming Pool has slides, diving boards and even a pool strictly for little ones!

Located on the north side of town, our city park has a swimming pool, picnic areas, playground, camping hookups, tennis courts and a disc golf course. The North Loup River runs by the park adding fishing and a scenic view!

The Veteran's Memorial Park, located on the northeast corner of the square, honors local veterans from as far back as the Spanish-American War.

The Calamus State Fish Hatchery stocks a variety of fish in lakes throughout Nebraska. Visit www.outdoornebraska.gov/hatcheries/ or call 308. 346. 4226 for more information.

★ ROLLING WAVES AND ROLLING STORM CLOUDS.

Wide-open spaces and cozy campfires.

A time to kick back and a time to roll up the sleeves.

The chance to journey alone and the chance become a part of something more.

That's what you'll find out here.

A small town with its roots spread wide.

Burwell — Where the good life grows.
